

About Me:

My name is Luke Edward Albritton, and I am currently a senior at Louisiana Tech University majoring in Agricultural Business with a concentration in Business Administration. I am from Farmerville, Louisiana, about 25 miles northeast of Ruston. Growing up, I always enjoyed hunting, fishing, and being in the outdoors. Throughout my childhood days I have spent many hours working on a farm and working in the landscaping and irrigation business. I graduated from Ouachita Christian as the President of the senior class. I played baseball and football in high school, and I continued my career in baseball at Louisiana Tech. As a freshman I was majoring in Kinesiology, but little did I know, this wasn't what I wanted to do for the rest of my life. I began to pray about my situation and God put it on my heart to study Agriculture. It is turning out to be one of the best decisions of my life. My plans after graduating in May are to go into outside sales for an agricultural equipment company or a seed/chemical company. I'm currently working as an outside salesman for Reladyne, and I also work on Tech Farm.

Mentors:

My mother is someone that showed me how to love and serve others while never expecting anything in return. She would always say, "Do it because you love people and that's what God calls us to do". My Dad showed me how to become a man in many important areas of my life. He showed me how to love my future wife Elyse Dozier, and he also showed me how to sacrifice and provide for your family. Mr. Benny Hennen is another man that I have known just a short time, but this time has been rewarding as I can always talk to him about anything in my life. He is a man of integrity; a man of God. Steven Fitzhugh, my high school football coach. Taught me to "Seize the Day" and make the most of every opportunity that we have on this Earth. I'm so thankful that God has put these people in my life and there's no way I could every repay them.

Quotes:

"Seize The Day"

Coach Fitzhugh

"Leaders are made, they are not born. They are made by hard effort, which is the price which all of us must pay to achieve any goal that is worthwhile." Vince Lombardi
